

Francisco de Estacio Neto Development and Quality Manager

“ In concern of products and associated products, we must understand not just the current needs, but also the future needs of our customers, to fully satisfy all their requirements. This is how Cabelauto works to retain and conquer its customers. ”

Francisco de Estacio Neto has a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering – Power Systems. He started his career in a large manufacturer of electric cables, where he got more than 30 years of experience in the areas of Development and Quality of Materials, Products and Processes.

His experience in electric cables embraces products such as power cable up to 69 kV, control and instrumentation, wires and cables for general installations, automotive cables, telephone cables, coaxial, for mobile and naval use and platforms, automotive harnesses, injected parts and stamped terminals. He also served on the Board of Directors of Qualifio - Brazilian Association for the Quality of Electric Wires and Cables, from 2008 to 2012.

At Cabelauto since 2017, his role is as a Development and Quality Manager, under his responsibility is the technical area, which involves Product Development and Quality Management. He is also responsible for Quality Management System, certified according to ISO 9001 and IATF 16949 standards.