

Sebastião José Pereira Filho

Process Supervisor

“ Innovation, creativity and perseverance to face the challenges in the search of operational excellence, these are values present in this great company called Cabelauto, that believes and bets in the human potential as a talent given by God. Happiness and pride are what I feel for being part of this winning group. ”

Sebastião José Pereira Filho has a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering. For more than 30 years he has been working in electric wires and cables industry, he started his activities as a Process Technician in a large group of the sector, in which he participated directly in the implementation of ISO 9000 quality assurance system and in the improvement and gain of industrial productivity.

He also has experience in the areas of Planning, Programming, Production Control and Process Engineering, for manufacture of special cables, control and instrumentation, medium and high voltage power cables up to 138kV, cables for general installations, coaxial cables, cables for mobile and naval use and platforms.

He joined Cabelauto in 2017, in Quality and Process Management area, being currently dedicated to Process Engineering, in which he is responsible for the improvement of the industrial efficiency, acting in equipment, methods and processes, in the search of productivity raise and cost reduction, with quality, safety and continuous attention to innovation.